Press Note.

Kannada Typewriters.

Certain comments have appeared in the local Press on the action alleged to have been taken by Government about Kannada Typewriters. Government wish to point out that the allegations made in these comments are not based on facts. For instance, it has been stated that the Sharma Committee met again under the Chairmanship of Sri T. T. Sharma and resolved to introduce certain modifications to the keyboard which they had originally recommended to Government. This is not correct. Government feel it necessary to inform the public of the correct position in respect of Kannada Typewriters.

The recommendations of the Sharma Committee met with a mixed reception from the Public. While the technical perfection of the Keyboard layout suggested by the Committee was well appreciated by the public, there was opposition from certain quarters to script reforms. In a booklet by Sri K. Sree Vijayapaliah, Senior Assistant Director, Government Press, Bangalore, who was a member of the Sharma Committee, entitled "Introduction of Kannada on the Typewriter, Linotype and the Monotype", it was explained how the introduction of the reforms suggested by the Sharma Committee was inevitable. Though its publication met the criticisms previously levelled, yet there were indications that the Public would be more satisfied if the number of reforms was further reduced.

In order to meet this desire of the public, Sri K. Sree Vijayapaliah, submitted a note to Government, suggesting the elimination of one of the reforms, viz., the use of ಎೃ ಎೃೃ sign in places where it is not at present being used and also submitted a slightly modified Keyboard layout for approval. In this keyboard, only two out of the three vowel signs suggested by the Sharma Committee have been retained, viz., the use of common ಎೃ and ಎೃೃ signs by the side of ಕೃಕೃಕೃೃ consonants for converting them into ಎೃಕೃಕೃೃ and ಎೃಕೃಕೃೃೃ consonants. This being a very important change, Government considered it essential that it should be examined in all its details and hence constituted a Special Committee with the following personnel for the purpose.

1. Sri A. G. Ramachandra Rao, B.A.L.L.B., Minister for Law and Education (Chairman).
2. Sri T. T. Sharma, Diagonal Road, Visvesvarapuram, Bangalore.
3. Sri M. R. Sreenivasa Murthy, B.A., President, Kannada Sahithya Parishat, Bangalore-2.
4. Sri C. K. Venkataramiah, M.A., LL.B., Director, Literary and Cultural Development, Bangalore.
5. Sri B. Krishnaswamy Chetty, B.E., A.R.P.S., Director of Printing, Stationery and Publications, Bangalore.

6. Sri J. B. Mallaradhya, M.A., I.A.S., Director of Public Instruction in Mysore, Bangalore.
 7. Sri K. Sree Vijayapaliah, B.Sc. (Hons.), Senior Assistant Director, Government Press, Bangalore ... (Secretary).

The Committee met on 9th May 1953, in the Chambers of the Minister for Law and Education and discussed the matter. Their recommendations are now being considered by Government. The Public are requested to note that it is the Special Committee and not the original Sharma Committee that took part in the final deliberations in the modification of some aspects of the Keyboard and the use of vowel signs.
